

Haleyville Anti-Rapist/Anti-Fascist Action

Tracking and exposing fascists, rapists, and sexual abusers.

David Hamby, Sexual Assaulter

We Believe Survivors!

Our fundamental guiding principle is that we believe survivors. It's incredibly important to listen to victims, the abused, and the oppressed in the age of Trump and Kavanaugh, where victim-blaming and rape culture are normalized. Our community is fighting back by exposing rapists and sexual abusers while defending victims. If you're a rapist or sexual abuser and you live in our community, we're coming for you.

Sexual Harassment and Assault

Meet David Hamby. David is 52 years old, is married to Jamie Hamby, and works at Kith Kitchens in Haleyville, Alabama and, while he's working, he likes to sexually harass and assault his coworkers. His repulsive behavior includes making sexually explicit remarks toward younger women and even escalating to inappropriately, physically putting his hands on them. Further, David will put these younger women into vulnerable and sexual positions in the job place, making them feel unsafe.

This inappropriate, repugnant behavior has been formally reported to job supervisors and job authorities, however, they have taken no action, merely hand-waving the issue away by calling David's behavior "a joke," "no big deal," and "nothing to get offended over." Let's be clear: sexually abusive behavior of any kind is oppressive, threatening, dangerous, and unequivocally disgusting, and by supervisors and other superiors taking no action is systematic protection of sexual abusers and systematic normalizing of rape culture.

We exist to protect victims and survivors and to expose violent sexual abusers, fascists, racists, and bigots of all stripes. We're appalled and indignant about David's behavior and Kith's complicity in allowing sexual abuse to flourish. It's clear that David is a danger to the community, so we're releasing his doxx so that the public can be educated and be proactive in avoiding him for their safety.
